

Privacy Policies

Your privacy is critically important to us. At United Military Care we have a few fundamental principles:

- We don't ask you for your personal information unless we truly need it, generally for donation purposes only and conducted on a secured site.
- We do not share your personal information to include contact information with anyone except to comply with the law or protect our rights.
- We do not store personal information on our servers to include financial information unless required for the ongoing operation of one of our services.
- We aim to make it as simple as possible for you to control what's visible to the public, seen by a search engine, kept private, and permanently deleted.

Website Visitors Privacy

United Military Care collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. We collect this information to better understand how visitors use our website. From time to time we may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g. by publishing a report on trends in the usage of our website. Example: Reporting that 29% of those who visit our website do so from a mobile device.

Gathering Personally-Identifying Information

Certain Visitors to United Military Care's website choose to interact with us in ways to require us to gather personally identifying information. (Email, Name, Telephone Number, and in the case of making a donation online, address and card information.) The amount of information we gather depends on the nature of the interaction. United Military Care collects such information only insofar as is necessary or appropriate to fulfill the purpose of the visitor's interaction with our website. We do not disclose personally identifying information other than described below. All visitors can refuse to supply personally-identifying information with the caveat that it may prevent them from engaging in certain website-related activities.

Aggregated Statistics

United Military Care may collect statistics about the behavior of visitors to our website and on our social media. For example, we may monitor the most popular posts on our social media and display this information publicly or provide it to others. AS well, we may post how many visitors used a mobile phone to read our newsletter. We do not share or publicize personal or personally identifying information obtained through our website or social media without expressed written permission such as the author of a social media post.

Protection of Certain Personally-Identifying Information

United Military Care discloses potentially personally-identifying and confirmed identifying information only to those employees, contractors, and affiliated organizations (such as the credit card processing company or the bank) in order to process donations on our behalf or to provide services to our website and all have not agreed not to disclose it to others. United Military Care takes all measures reasonably necessary to protect against the unauthorized access, use, alteration, or destruction of potentially personally-identifying information.

Cookies

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. United Military Care uses cookies to help us identify and track visitors, their usage of our website, and access preferences. For example, we use cookies to understand how many visitors come to our website more than once and how many are new to our site. We also use cookies to tell us what pages on our site people visit most frequently. Visitors who do not want cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using the United Military Care website, with the drawback that certain features of our website may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, we may change our policy from time to time and at our Board of Director's sole discretion. We encourage visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to our policies. Your continued use of our site will constitute your acceptance of this and all policies and perpetual changes.
